

Sinclair Broadcasting goes over the line in airing partisan attacks as news. It betrays its trust as a public broadcaster when it fails to put aside its own special interest and skews the truth.

In that Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, It falls to the FCC to take action to protect all the public's interest here. I hope this misuse of its trust will be noted in considering Sinclair's license when it comes up for renewal.